

Combinatorics Seminar

Thursday, December 1, 2011

1:50 pm in Hume 331

Dr. Stan Dziobiak

Department of Mathematics
University of Mississippi

Using Mathematica for Graph Theoretical Computations

ABSTRACT

In this talk we will introduce the basics of Mathematica, especially its Combinatorica package, and show how it can be useful for graph theoretical computations. Examples from our current research on cubic non-toroidal graphs will be given.