

Pi Mu Epsilon

the mathematics honors society for university students

Thursday, March 21, 2019
12:15-12:50 PM in Hume 201

Sophia Fosdick, Senior Mathematics Major

A career as an actuary and the path towards becoming one

In this talk, I will describe the different areas of the actuarial field, comparing consulting and pure insurance, as well as discuss what a typical working day might look like. I will also provide information on the exams and other necessary steps towards attaining a career, including delving into internships, deadlines, and valuable skills for the profession.

See you Thursday!